DEAL IN WASHINGTON TERRACE

at Favorable Recommendation on Gas Ordinance-Spence - Nunnamaker Company Buys Warehouse.

"The Richmond Real Estate Ex-change is very much gratified," said Secretary F. M. Boykin, yesterday, "that the Council Committee on Ordinances has seen the position of the real estate owner in regard to the 'gas bill' ordinance, and I hope that the Council will give it equal consideration." Real estate agents, especially those doing a large rental business, were elated yesterday over the action of the Ordinance Committee.

The realty deals recorded yesterday show a continued demand for residential property. Among the largest was deeds between Claude E. Sprenkle and wife and the Washington Terrace Corporation. Sprenkle transfers to the corporation two houses at 2815 and 2817. Floyd Avenue for a consideration, computed by the deed tax, of $15.500, while the Washington Terrace Corporation conveys to Sprenkle a number of lots in Bellevic, near Woodland Heights, for $6.500.

The American Terminal Warchouse Corporation conveys to the Spence-Nunnamaker Company a warchouse on Seventeenth Street, just north of Broad, for $10,000.

J. J. Kcaveney, a saloon-keeper of Richmond, yesterday entered a peti-tion of voluntary bankruptcy in the United States District Court. His Ila-bilities were placed at $2,105.32, and his assets at $3,200.
